

2017 Fortune 500 Highlights

Company detail and full list beginning on Page 3.

Oklahoma has 5 headquartered Fortune 500 companies:

Oneok #312 was listed as a "big jump" company moving up 36 spots.

Devon dropped 15 spots to #231; OK employment remained steady around 2,500.

NGL Energy Partners dropped 70 spots to #237; however since their list debut in 2015, they have moved up 62 spots.

Chesapeake #343 dropped 120 spots; OK employment increased slightly to nearly 3,000.

Williams dropped just 3 spots to #367.

Notable Companies with Oklahoma locations:

Aerospace Sector: Boeing remained the same at #24 and United Technologies fell 5 spots to #50.

Lockheed Martin (#56), Northrop Grumman (#114) and Raytheon (#116) all jumped up 4 spots.

American Airlines Group remained the same ranked at #67 and is the highest ranked airline out of 6 in the 500.

L3 Technologies fell 28 spots to #273.

Arconic (#228) formed when Alcoa split in 2016 creating the Aerospace & Defense spin-off; a good fit for Oklahoma.

Leidos (#381) a spin-off of SAIC is back on the list; last time since 2014. They are a Virginia based IT company with locations at Tinker and Fort Sill.

Spirit Aerosystems fell just 4 spots to #393. Their employment in Tulsa and McAlester remained steady slightly under 2,000.

Energy Sector: Halliburton dropped 56 spots to #173 partially due to the oil & gas downturn and having to pay Baker Hughes for the called off merger.

Baker Hughes fell 107 spots to #285. Halliburton, Baker Hughes and National Oilwell Varco (#375) are the only oilfield services companies in the 500.

American Electric Power (AEP) who owns PSO fell just 2 spots to #167. It is the fifth highest ranked utility. OGE is in the Fortune 1000 ranked at #876.

General Electric fell 2 spots to #13, but remains in the Top 15.

Goodyear Tire fell 15 spots to #184, however OK employment remained steady at just under 3,000.

Seaboard fell 26 spots to #486, however OK employment increased slightly to just over 3,500.

Big Jumps & Notable New Companies:

Marriott (#136) and Weyerhaeuser (#341) both jumped up 32 spots.

Berry Global Group (Berry Plastics) debuted at #413. Berry has a Tulsa location employing between 150-200.

Tesla debuted at #383 in the Motor Vehicle category.

Builders FirstSource, a Dallas, TX lumber company, debuted at #421. They have locations in both OKC & Tulsa.

Technology Sector: Alphabet (Google) moved up 9 spots to #27.

Dell Technologies is back (and in the Top 50) after falling off the last 2 years. Partially due to an EMC buyout, they're ranked at #41.

Adobe software based in California debuted at #443. While they currently have no OK locations, their products are widely used worldwide.

Facebook jumped 59 spots into the Top 100 at #98.

Yahoo debuted at #498.

Retail Sector: Macy's dropped 7 spots to #110. Their Owasso center increased employment by about 500 to a total of about 3500. Costco with a new Tulsa store remained in the top 20, but fell one spot to #16. Dollar Tree was listed as a "big jumper" up 44 spots to #136. They have stores statewide and a distribution center in Marietta. Dollar General moved up 11 spots to #128. They have stores statewide and a distribution center in Ardmore. Michael's stores debuted at #496. They have stores in Norman, Oklahoma City and Tulsa employing more than 200 statewide. Amazon jumped 6 spots to #12. They have moved up every year (23 spots since 2014) and will be opening up a new center in Oklahoma City. Ascena Retail Group (#384) who owns Ann Taylor, Loft, Justice, Lane Bryant and Catherine's debuted on the list.

Notable Companies Falling Off the 500:

Trinity Industries fell 132 spots to #539.
Marathon Oil fell 98 spots to #536.
Barnes & Noble fell 128 spots to #555.
KKR fell 309 spots to #656
