

Fortune 500 Companies

July 2016

Wal-Mart and Exxon Mobil retained their spots at #1 and #2. Apple moved from #5 to #3, Berkshire Hathaway remained at #4, and McKesson rose from #11 to take the #5 spot. Chevron dropped from the top 5 to #14.

The highest-ranked new entrant to the Fortune 500 was Performance Foods (185), which was acquired by Wellspring Capital Management and Blackstone Group in 2008, and grouped with Vistar and Roma Foods into PFG, which went public in 2015. Blackstone is an owner of several companies with an OK presence including Hilton hotels.

The highest ranked industries on average this year were Holding Companies, Retail, Petroleum Refining, and Computer-Office Equipment-Data Center.

The industries that showed the greatest improvement in ranking on average were Business Services, Homebuilders, Machinery Wholesale, and Financial Data Services

Oklahoma had 5 Fortune 500 companies: NGL Energy (167), Devon (216), Chesapeake (223), ONEOK (348) and Williams (364); their average rank was 263. NGL rose by 132 places; Williams rose by 6. The other fell in rank.

16 new companies made the list (and conversely 16 exited).
